Jon Hill has resigned as C.E.O. of the Washington County Family YMCA. The Board has appointed Jerry Short as Interim C.E.O.

Hill said by e-mail last week that his time in Washington County has been special.

“I have been honored to work at the Washington County YMCA,” he said. “Its been a pleasure to bring the mission of the YMCA to the Washington County community. Its been a blessing to have served everyone that is part of the YMCA. I am glad to be a part of the growth of the Y locally.”

A Search and Screening Committee has been established and will be aggressively seeking a permanent C.E.O.

The Board thanks Mr. Hill for his leadership and contributions to the YMCA. They wish him well in his future endeavors
