

SPD investigates juvenile stabbing

Written by George Browning

Tuesday, 12 October 2010 00:00 - Last Updated Tuesday, 12 October 2010 11:45

A juvenile showed up at St. Vincent Salem Hospital Oct. 6 with a stab wound.

The hospital called the Salem Police Department and officers responded.

According to Salem Police Chief Scott Ratts, the injuries were not life threatening and since the case involved a juvenile, he couldn't release any additional information.

The case is still under investigation.

--George Browning