

Juvenile flees after crashing into Taco Bell

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 02 November 2010 00:00 - Last Updated Tuesday, 02 November 2010 09:07

A 17-year-old Washington County male is in custody after he wrecked into Taco Bell last weekend.

Washington County Prosecutor Dustin Houchin said the his office has a history with the teen and there is a possibility he will be charged as an adult.

After the accident the teen fled the scene, but was arrested by Salem Police officer Chris Cauble.

The teen is currently being held under suspicion of being intoxicated with both drugs and alcohol in his system.

--George Browning