Cecil Smith, recent winner of the Citizen of the Year Award, presented by the Chamber of Commerce, will serve as the Grand Marshal for the Christmas Parade. The parade is planned for Saturday, Nov. 27, 4 pm. Parade entries are still being accepted.

Businesses are currently putting together plans for the event. The GoodWill Store, located on Main Street, will be having a children's coloring contest. In addition, cookies will be served to the children visiting the store on Nov.27th. The winners of the contest will be awarded cash prizes.
