A 14-year-old Salem boy, Isaiah Shell, died Friday evening at his home, according to Washington County coroner Ronadale Brishaber.

Brishaber said a cause of death is not known at this time and he hopes to have that information by today (Wednesday, Aug. 8, 2012).

Brishaber called the investigation a "Basic Death Investigation" and said foul play is not suspected.

Shell's obituary can be found on page 6 of the Aug. 8 issue of The Washington County Edition.
