

Pekin tornado remembrance ceremony Saturday

Written by George Browning

Wednesday, 27 February 2013 00:00 -

In remembrance of the March 2, 2012 tornados that devastated the communities of Pekin and Daisy Hill there will be a tree dedication and balloon release ceremony at Pekin Pekin Park.

Several speakers are lined up and all who were affected are invited are invited to please come and share your story.

There will be refreshments available after the service.

All are invited to come out and show your support for this community.

Due to wet and cold weather the refreshments will be served following the ceremonies at Pekin United Methodist Church.

The tree will be there, but may have to be planted at a later date.