

All three Washington County boys' basketball teams saw their seasons come to an end in the semi-final round of sectional play.

Eastern lost to Clarksville, West Washington fell to Orleans and Salem fell to Brownstown Central.

A story from Salem's loss to Brownstown Central can be found inside this section.

The Lions finished with a 0-21 record.

The Musketeers posted a 9-12 mark.

The Senators were 6-16.

Only three teams in the area lasted past the sectional round.

Orleans will play Borden in the Class A Loogootee Regional and Brownstown Central also advanced.
