The unofficial start to summer is the annual Campbellsburg All-American Country Hoedown. This year's event was help during the first weekend of June.

The festival features a kiddie's tractor pull, talent show, baking contest and the always popula parade.

More photos from this year's event can be found inside this paper.

Photos were taken by Allison Puckett.

Pictued above is Lydia Maudlin on Farmall C Tractor. She is awaiting the parade's start.