? The City of Salem Parks and Recreation along with the Washington County Humane Society and the Salem Public Library are planning their annual Halloween and Howl-O-Ween Party for Saturday, October 25, from 3:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. at Community Park, (ball field area behind KD Backroads), in Salem. The location has been changed to accommodate more parking.

The Salem Parks and Recreation Department and the Salem Public Library will conduct activities during the Halloween Party for children up to 12 years of age. Games will be played and prizes for all children who come dressed in costume. Mayor David Bower will be serving hot apple cider and donuts. Salem City Policeman, Eric Mills will be stopping by with Milan, the Salem PD K-9, demonstrating the “search” procedure.

The Washington County Humane Society along with Salem Animal Control Officer, Jim Deich will be in charge of the Howl-O-Ween Party for pets and their owners. Pets must be leashed or confined and up-to-date on vaccinations. There will be a “Pet Agility Demonstration”, “Pet Parade”, photo opportunities for the pets and their owners, and treats and prizes for the participants. Owners are responsible for their pets’ behavior and actions.

For more information you may call the Salem Parks and Recreation Office at 883-2895 or the Salem Animal Shelter at 883-3673.

This is a fundraiser for the Humane Society. The registration cost for the Howl-O-Ween Party is $3 per entry. You are encouraged to bring along lawn chairs and blankets.
