

Two killed in Dec. 30 crash

Written by George Browning
Tuesday, 07 January 2014 00:00 -

On December 30, 2013 at approximately 9:14 a.m., the Washington County Sheriff's Department responded to a two vehicle head-on crash on Hardinsburg-Livonia Road, north of the intersection of West Knight Road.

The driver's of both vehicles, (only occupants), involved in the crash received fatal injuries as a result of the collision.

The preliminary Investigation revealed that a red 2006 Chevrolet Cobalt was traveling northbound and as it topped a hillcrest it traveled into the southbound lanes striking a black 2014 Jeep Compass.

Both drivers were wearing their seatbelts and there was airbag deployment.

Notification has been made to both next of kins regarding this incident.

Driver of the red 2006 Chevy Cobalt; Tami J. Durbin, 26, Hardinsburg.

Driver of the black 2014 Jeep Compass; Terry P. Collins, 62, Orleans.