

By Dennis Dunn
Special Correspondent

On Sunday, Feb. 18, the IHSAA conducted the boys sectional pairings and the local teams found out their fates coming up when it begins on Tuesday, Feb. 27.

In the tough Class 4A Sectional 15 at Seymour, Bedford North Lawrence will play Floyd Central and the host school Seymour will play Jennings County. Jeffersonville will play the winner of the BNL-FC game in the first game on Friday night, March 2 and New Albany will play the winner of the Seymour-JC game in the second game that night. The championship game is slated for Saturday night, March 3.

There are three ranked teams playing in the Seymour Sectional as New Albany, Floyd Central and Jeffersonville are the ones ranked and have over 15 wins on the season. Bedford North Lawrence and Seymour also have double digit wins on the year.

In the seven-team Class 3A Sectional 30 at North Harrison, Scottsburg and Corydon Central will get things started on Tuesday night. North Harrison will play Charlestown in the first game on Wednesday night, Feb. 28 and Brownstown Central will play Salem in the second game that night. Silver Creek, the only ranked team, drew the bye and will play the winner of the Scottsburg-Corydon Central winner in the first game on Friday night. The championship game will be held on Saturday night.

The Class 2A Sectional 46 will be played at Paoli and Eastern (Pekin) will open up with Austin on Tuesday night. In the first game on Wednesday night, Clarksville and Providence will renew their rivalries and Henryville and Paoli will play the second game. Crawford County, last year's state runners-up drew the bye and will play the EHS-AHS winner on Friday night. The championship game will be Saturday night.

Borden will host this year's Class A Sectional 61 and Rock Creek Academy will start off with Christian Academy in the first game on Tuesday night. Borden will play South Central in the second game. Lanesville will play the winner of the RCA-CAI game in the first game on Friday night and New Washington will play the BHS-SC winner in the second game. Those winners will play in the championship game on Saturday night.

In the Class A Sectional 62 at Edinburgh, Medora will play Shawe Memorial and Trinity Lutheran will play Crothersville on Tuesday night. Edinburgh got the first bye and will play the MHS-Shawe winner on Friday night, while West Washington drew the other bye and will play the CHS-TLHS winner. Championship game will be played on Saturday night.