

The young ladies from the Floyds Knobs Community Club continued their amazing summer Monday night with an 8-0 win over the Czech Republic.

Emory Waterbury pitched a no-hit shutout.

She went six innings, didn't allow a hit and only walked one batter.

She recorded 11 strikeouts.

The win sent Floyd Knobs into the semi-finals, where they lost 6-5 to a team from North Carolina. More from that game will be in the August 23 issue of The Banner Gazette.

According to the Little League World Series website members of the team are: Avery Adams, Taylor Chumbley, Zoe Couch, Alexis Davenport, Katherine Ettel, Kylie Franks, Amanda Hess, Brooklyn Nolot, Katelyn Satkoski, Gracyn Teeter, Caroline Unruh, Emory Waterbury and Katherine Weber.
